

Robert Seibert

Professor Robert Seibert's teaching centers around the Travel and Tourism Management discipline. Specifically he teaches classes such as International Travel and Tourism, Tourism Research and Destination Analysis, Convention Services Management and Lodging Accommodations. Professor Seibert has had several positions throughout the travel and tourism industry with many well known companies. He has worked for the Dolphin Hotel in Walt Disney World in the Review and Analysis Hotel Department; he has worked for the American Society of Travel Agents in Philadelphia, PA and for American Airlines as a SABRE Product Workshop and Sales Training Associate. Professor Seibert also was the President of Delaware Travel, Inc. out of Sidney and Oneonta, NY and as the Vice President and General Manager of Catskill Travel, Inc. out of Sidney and Walton, NY. Professor Seibert received his Industrial Arts Education from SUNY Oswego and is Bachelors degree of Music and Music Education from Salem College in Salem, West Virginia. He then continued on to get a Masters of Education from the University of Maryland and a Masters of Science in Hospitality and Tourism Management from the Rochester Institute of Technology.