Courses for Deciding Students

These courses have been recommended as intro classes that any student can take

Applied Science and Recreation

Adventure Recreation
-PRKM 110 or 130
Golf Course Operations
-TURF 100, LDCT 100
Horticulture
-HORT 100 or 120
Landscaping Design and Management
-HORT 100 (guest speakers, career info)
Park and Outdoor Recreation
-PRKM 110 or 130
Physical Education Studies
-PEDH 126, PEDH 155, PEDH 210
Recreation and Sports Management
-PRKM 110 or 130
Turf Management
-TURF 100, LDCT 100, HORT 100
Veterinary Science
-VETS 120 (For the fall, since the spring course is online)

Liberal Arts and Nursing

Liberal Arts and Sciences
-Many classes count
Criminal Justice Studies
-CJUS 100
Teacher Education Transfer
-Closed during fall semester due to lack of seats, possible in spring semester
-EDUC 100 & EDUC 101
Environmental Studies
-BIOL 130, 140, 150, 110
Nursing
-Students must pass Math 128, ENGL 100, BIOL 130; they also need a 3.0 overall and to have earned 12 credits during their first semester

Business

Accounting
-ACCT 115
Business Administration A.A.S.
-BUSI 100 or 110
Business Administration A.S.
-ACCT 115, BUSI 245, ECON
Computer Information Systems
-CITA 110, 120 or 130
Marketing
-BUSI 245, 100 or 110

Hospitality

Hosp 130 (Menu Planning)
Hosp 135 (Sanitation)
TRVL 170 (Tourism)
Intro to Hospitality-a course being developed that will cover areas of Hospitality (Hotel, Culinary, Restaurant and Travel)

Technology

Architectural Technology
-AECT 100
Automotive Technology
-NONE
Carpentry
-CARP 101
CADD (computer aided drafting and design)
-EGSC 115 or CADD 111 and 130
Construction Technology
-AECT 100
Electrical (Electrical Construction and Instrumentation)
-NONE
HVAC (Heating, Ventilating, and Air Conditioning)
-NONE
Welding Technology
-WELD 100