May 27, 2014

Dear Student:

I regret to inform you that, due to your low cumulative Grade Point Average (GPA), you are being placed on academic probation. You will remain on probation and will be subject to dismissal until your cumulative GPA reaches or exceeds 2.00.

Academic Probation status is serious. You must raise your cumulative GPA to 2.00 to return to good standing and to receive your degree. Your financial aid status may be affected. You will be notified by the financial aid office if your financial aid status has changed.

If you have not registered for fall classes, we cannot guarantee that you will be able to schedule classes for the fall 2014 semester. Please call your advisor or division office to discuss scheduling immediately. (See phone numbers on other side.)

All students on academic probation are required to complete and sign a contract with the College that spells out the expectations for the next semester as outlined in academic policy 1.384-1, printed on the back of this letter. Failure to meet the requirements of your contract may result in dismissal from the College.

FAILURE TO COMPLETE YOUR ACADEMIC PROBATION CONTRACT WILL NOT BE CONSIDERED AN EXCUSE FOR MISSING CLASSES, WHICH BEGIN MONDAY, September 1, 2014.

The College is committed to helping you improve your academic performance so that you can return to good status and make progress toward your degree. However, meeting the conditions noted on your contract will be solely your responsibility. Please understand that due to your probation status, you may be required to spend at least an extra semester at Delhi, or take necessary courses during summer school to complete your degree requirements.

We will provide you with the services and activities to help you achieve academic success. In return, you must commit yourself to participate in these activities and to work diligently. It is my sincere hope that you will be successful next semester.

Sincerely,

John S. Nader, Ph.D.
Provost

FROM THE ACADEMIC PROGRAMS AND SERVICES POLICY HANDBOOK:
1.384-1 PROBATION PROGRAM

When the cumulative GPA falls below 2.00, a student loses good standing and will be placed under signed contract with the academic advisor in the Academic Probation Program, which may include but not be limited to:

A. An academic load not to exceed 15 credit hours for students with a GPA of less than 2.00 and greater than 1.50.

B. An academic load not to exceed 12 credit hours for students with a GPA below 1.50.

C. Enrollment, when appropriate, in developmental/study skills courses, and/or workshops, and/or tutoring, in consultation with the Resnick Learning Center.

D. Monthly meetings with an academic advisor.

E. A minimum of 90% class attendance in the following semester.

F. A scheduled meeting with the advisor to review grades and classroom attendance.

G. Attendance at academic group meetings as established by the academic department or division.

Students will remain in the Academic Probation Program, even if they change programs, until their cumulative GPA reaches 2.00 or above at which time their good standing will be re-established. Students who fail to comply with contract obligations may be subject to dismissal.
