

Teaching

- Describe a successful experience working with a diverse population of students.
- Discuss your experience or interest working with struggling learners.
- Talk about a time when you helped a student experience success?
- How have individualized instruction for a student?
- Tell us about a time when you challenged a slow learner and an advanced learner in the same class?
- What is your experience working with special education students? English Language Learners?
- Give an example of something valuable that you learned from a colleague.
- Would you rather try new teaching strategies or try to perfect the approaches which work best for you? Explain.
- Describe how you have made your course content culturally relevant for your students.
- Provide a specific example of how you used technology in an interactive way.
- What are the methods that you use to help reduce plagiarism in your classroom?
- Describe procedures that you use to evaluate student progress besides testing?
- What is the most exciting thing happening in your field of study?
- Tell us about individuals who have most influenced your own education and career.
- What campus and/or community activities would you like to be associated with and why?
- How do you anticipate working at this school will be different from your previous experience?
- What needs and/or expectations do you have of administration?
- Tell us about a time when you worked with a student that had special needs and was repeatedly disruptive or uncooperative, how did you handle that situation?

- What personal attributes do you possess which will enable you to be a positive role model for students?
- What are your plans for continuing your professional growth?
- Tell me about an interesting article you have read recently in a professional journal.
- What current trends in higher education interest you? Displease you?
- Describe a situation in which you did all the right things and were still unsuccessful. What did you learn from the experience?
- What pedagogical changes do you see on the horizon in your discipline?
- How would you go about being an advocate and resource for the use of technology in the teaching and learning process?
- What challenges are you looking for in this position?
- What is your philosophy of education?
- How do you assess how well students are learning?
- What is your approach to classroom management?
- If we visit your classroom, what will we find most impressive?
- What techniques do you use to keep students actively involved during a class?
- How do you stay current in your field?
- What experience do you have with distance learning, internet courses, etc.?