

Student Storage Policies

- Payment must be received upon reservation (cash, check, or money order only). Failure to store belongings before storage room closes in May will not result in a refund.
- A valid SUNY Delhi ID must be presented at time of reservation, drop off, and pick up.
- Only clean refrigerators and microwaves will be accepted.
- The privilege of storage extends only to students who will be residing on campus for either the fall semester or summer session.
- International students will be permitted to reserve storage spaces 7 days in advance of other students on campus.
- Items can be stored only between May 18th through September 7th.
- Any items not placed in storage and items not properly labeled will be discarded. Any unclaimed items after September 7th will be immediately disposed of at the discretion of the College.
- Students must bring and collect their belongings during Storage Room Hours. Failure to do so will NOT result in a special drop off or pick up time.
- Students store items at their own risk as the College assumes no responsibility for them. It is suggested that as much as possible be taken home.
- The College is not responsible for theft, loss, or damage of personal belongings. Students should take valuables home during holidays and vacations and not plan to store valuables in this storage facility.
