Treasurer

Treasurer Lindsey Moorehead read a list of the following clubs that must stop by the Student Activities Office by 3 pm on Friday February 1st to reconcile their budgets. Failure to do so will result in the freezing of their accounts. The clubs are: Broncos Fynest, BIG, College Players, DCIC, Parks and Rec, Epic Movie, Fine Arts, Outdoor, Photography, and WDTU. The Treasurer reminded club treasurers are to bring in all related paperwork, including their completed logs and any questions or concerns the club may have.

Also, as a standard procedure club Senators are to make an effort to communicate quickly with their Club Treasurer to be sure all absent and late fees are appropriately deducted. The Treasurer also told Senate when she would be having the Mandatory New Club Meetings. They will be held on February 4th at 11 am and February 5th at 3pm in the Student Senate Office Suite, Club Level of Farrell Center. On February 7th it will be held at 6 pm in room 211A in Farrell as well.

Vice President

Vice President Ray Barber told Senate about the Harlem Globetrotters game that will be held in Clark Field House on Monday, February 4th. There have been over 1000 free student tickets distributed on campus thanks to support from CADI, Barnes & Noble, and the Student Senate.

President

President Oswald J. Bowman told Senate about a campus-wide project to support SUNY’s Rebuild New York Campaign. O’Conner Center for Community Engagement will be coordinating a week long alternative break trip to the New York metropolitan area at the end of February. In order to support this effort, CADI had agreed to allow the Student Senate to change the dates of the annual CADI Community Service Challenge Program. The program will now take place from January 27th to February 28th and all of the funds raised from the program will go towards this massive undertaking. In order to meet this goal of 1000 hours of community service in only 28 days, the Senate Executive Board is requesting that all recognized organizations pledge to do at least 20 hours of community service within the next month. For each hour completed and documented through OCCE, $5 will be received to achieve a maximum of $5000.

New Business
Martin Greenfield, Director of Student Activities, welcomed back everyone from their winter break. He reminded Senators that Winterfest will take place next week on campus.
