Vice President Courtney Ketz called the meeting to order at 5:15pm. Secretary Courtney Suttles took attendance. There were 39 senators in attendance and 1 senator was late: BSU.

Announcements

NSNA: will be holding a fundraiser to sell pre-mixed “cookie jars”; oatmeal-raisin and chocolate chip on Thursday, October 21st from 11am to 5pm in Farrell Center, 1st floor. Prices: $7 each or $6 when two are purchased.

Broncos Fynest will be hosting an annual Celebrity Imitation Show. It will be held Friday October 29th in the Okun Theatre. It is one $1 entry fee if you are wearing a costume, $2 if you are not wearing a costume. Prizes will be given to the best act and best costume. There will be a table in Farrell next week for anyone who wishes to sign up and perform in the show. Everyone is welcome to participate.

SPB: We The Kings concert and J Cole is on October 23rd. Tickets are on sale now for $17 or $25 at the door.

Gallagher will be coming to SUNY Delhi on October 30th.

Guest Speaker

Eddie Caruso spoke about the interest of a rugby club on campus. The rugby interest group is looking for a field to play on and transportation for the team. The players have stated that they will pay the fees for athletic insurance fee and cover the liability insurance. A petition was presented to the Senate with 250 signatures in support of starting a Rugby Club. The Senate Executive Board will discuss this with the Athletic Director, Intramural Coordinator, and Director of Student Activities and report back to the Senate within the next two weeks.

Officer Reports

Secretary

Secretary Courtney Suttles reminded the senators to check their mail boxes. Along with checking the mail boxes the clubs should be looking out for Student Activities information forms. Many new students have filled out forms showing interest in joining clubs and are still waiting to hear back from club representatives.
Any clubs that still need to complete the signature sheets and Executive Board sheets need to get them into the Student Activities office by Friday, October 8. The clubs include the following: VIP, Multicultural Club, Step It Up, Horticulture Club, Fine Arts, and Think Green. Any clubs who do not turn them in will be fined.

Treasurer

Club treasurer’s who need to reconcile their account on Thursday from 1pm to 3pm include: Campus Voice, BSU, PGM Club, WIC, ATEC, Psychology Club, NYSAVT, Think Green, Honor Society, and AIAS.

Also, VIP needs to meet with Treasurer Bobby Jewitt to pick up their purchase orders and review the basic Treasurer information.

Vice President

Vice President Courtney Ketz informed everyone that she spoke with CIS Director John Brennan about the network extenders. We will not be getting network extensions but in the future it is a possibility to get a Verizon cell phone tower.

President Jeff Abraham reports that he has sent a letter to John Ford about food service concerns, and will meet with John after the break to discuss specific issues that have been raised.

President

President Jeff Abraham was unable to attend the senate meeting due to illness.

New Business

-None-

Old Business

Escoffier Club was wondering if there was any new information about the faculty emails not working properly.

RHA was wondering if there was any new information on the recycling effort.

Open Discussion

Psychology Club mentioned there are some clubs that are not listed on the Student Activities website.
Computer Club asked if it would be possible to hold events using the projectors in Farrell Center.

Marty Greenfield, Director of Student Activities, said thank you for everyone’s support and have a good break!

Adjournment

The meeting was adjourned at 5:35 pm by Step It Up and seconded by Fine Arts. All were in favor with no on opposing or abstaining.