ANNOUNCEMENTS

SPB: Sunday Comedy is cancelled for this week.

Greek Council: Tau Delta Chi is having a “Call of Duty” Tournament on Friday, November 20. Registration starts at 7:30pm and the tournament starts at 8:00pm in the Catskill Hall Great Room. The single prize winner will win the new Modern Warfare 2 game. Double team prize winner will get $25 gift cards. All proceeds go to Shannon MacIntosh who lost her home in a fire. Also, Greek Council would like to congratulate the 58 new brothers and sisters that have been initiated into our Greek community. There are now 178 proud, recognized Greeks on our campus. If you have any questions about Greek Life or are interested in joining a Greek Organization, please visit the Greek Council Office located on the Second Floor in Thurston Hall or see John Huber in 203 Thurston Hall.

GUEST SPEAKERS

Marty Greenfield formally announced the new class being offered at SUNY Delhi for the upcoming semester. COMM120 will consist of working closely with the radio station and television station and will be taught by Joe Piassac who has worked with television channels including MTV, Nickelodeon, and ESPN. Interested students are encouraged to register quickly for these classes.

SpeECHES were given by Nominees, Robyn Miller and Bobby Jewitt, for the open Treasurer position. Voting by the Senate was conducted after the speeches, and Bobby Jewitt was declared the new Treasurer. Student Senate would like to thank Robyn for being the interim Student Senate Treasurer and all the hard work she has put in throughout the semester.
