Vice President Ray Barber called the meeting to order at 5:15 pm. Secretary Jonathan Lora took attendance. There are 44 clubs in attendance. Turf Club was absent.

Guest Speaker

Director of Student Activities, Martin Greenfield, addressed the Senate about the upcoming Holiday Parade in Delhi on December 1st. He encouraged students to march with the College, and gave details about the College Centennial Float that will feature President Vancko, Student Senate President Bowman, and representatives from all majors. Many of the students who have participated in the past have found this event to be a lot of fun, and it is also an important aspect of town-gown relations.

Announcements

DCIC is planning a Christmas party on December 7th, 2012; there is no set place yet. There will be food as well as games. Additional information will be announced soon.

DCIC still has bible study led by Reverend Jared Stephens every Wednesday at 4 pm in the club level of Farrell Center.

Computer Club will be having Lanfeston Friday, November 30th at 8 pm till 8 am in the Catskill Great Room. This is a very popular event that is enjoyed by many students. Admission is free, and refreshments will be available.

Officer Report

Secretary

Secretary Jonathan Lora announced the clubs that were awarded a CADI Grant as follows: CSA received $300 for their Ice Cream Social; SPB received $500 for Zach Walls Presentation. Unfortunately, Bronco’s Fynest could not be accepted, as it lacked the required advisor signature.
The Secretary informed all clubs that there will be another CADI/Barnes & Noble Grant in February 2013, and encouraged all clubs to apply.

The Secretary expressed his thanks to Barnes & Noble and CADI on behalf of the Student Senate for making these grants available.

The Secretary reminded all clubs that if they are changing any executive officers they must fill out a new Club Executive Board Roster Form.

Treasurer

Treasurer Lindsey Moorehead announced that PGM will be refunded back $150 in fines that were instituted due to miscommunication.

The Treasurer reported the following clubs have not met, as required to reconcile their budgets: Anime Club, WDTU, Escoffier, Horticulture, RHA, Bronco’s Fynest, DETV, Psychology Club, Patisserie, BIG, NAHB, Epic Movie Club, DCIC, and ATEC. These clubs must reconcile their accounts before next Wednesday, December 5th at 4 pm. Failure to do so will result in a fine of $50 per week, until the meeting is held.

The Treasurer further reminded clubs that their treasurer must bring their logs and all other paperwork in order to be able to reconcile.

The Treasurer reminded all clubs that she is available to meet with, and assist their club treasurer with any questions or problems they may have related to club finances.

The Treasurer also reminded newly recognized clubs to set up a meeting with her in order to submit their initial budget request, and to establish their initial club budget.

Vice President

Vice President Ray Barber informed the Senate that we are currently working on several administrative additions to the Student Senate Policy and Procedure Manual. These additions will be brought to the entire Senate next week for discussion.

The Vice President asked Senate for any nominations for December 2012 Commencement Speaker: The following names were put forward, Barbara Sturdevant, Douglas Gulotty, and David Brower.

President

President Oswald J. Bowman informed the Senate about the Executive Board’s recent dinner with President Vancko and her Cabinet. Items discussed included internet concerns, downtown transportation, and the provision of early morning transportation for Nursing Clinicals. President Bowman also informed the Senate that the Executive Board expressed its’ thanks, on behalf of the student body for transportation support, and increased library hours to President Vanco and her Cabinet.

The President informed the Senate that next week the Executive Board will announce plans to distribute free student tickets to the Harlem Globetrotters Basketball Show to be held in February 2013. This event will be a major part to SUNY Delhi’s Centennial Celebration, and the Student Senate and SPB will be making 1,000 tickets available at no cost to SUNY Delhi students. This will be financed through everyone’s student activity fee.

The President read a recent health warning that went out concerning the XTC-like drug known as “MOLLY.” This is a very dangerous and potentially life threatening drug, and that as per a long established college policy, no student will ever get in trouble for calling for help to assist a friend, roommate, or other student who is in medical trouble.

The President reminded all clubs that we are looking to have a very large contingent of student clubs marching in the parade on Saturday. Everyone should to plan to meet at the Village Hall on Elm Street at 10 am. The Parade begins at 11 am.
