Officer Reports

Secretary

Adam Matos, Student Senate Secretary: Still missing rosters from College Players and Commuter Student Association.

Treasurer

Kenneth (Ken or Kenny) Murphy, Student Senate Treasurer: The Finance Committee reviewed the allocation of $1,000 to Igloo club. They are recommending a $400 allocation due to the reduced cost of the trip.

Vice President

Romario Stewart, Student Senate Vice President: Will be meeting with the Constitutional Review Committee this week.

President

Anthony Cucci, Student Senate President: Will be going to Albany in support of Rational Tuition. Rational Tuition is a university wide program that will allow all SUNY universities to forecast the amount of tuition for people interested in enrolling. The SUNY Assembly is also coming up. Candidates for Student Senate are encouraged also take part in this trip.

Old Business

S15-001: The allocation of $1,000 to Igloo club has been reviewed and recommended at $400. The $400 dollar allocation passed unanimously with one abstention.

New Business

A motion was made and passed to approve the minutes of March 4.
Open Discussion

Do not post flyers in the stairwell. It is a fire hazard.

If you need more information on the process to obtain a CADI Grant, visit the CADI website and fill out the necessary information for it to be reviewed.

Advisor
