

SUNY DELHI KICKS OFF ITS HOSPITALITY MANAGEMENT BACHELOR'S DEGREE AT SCHENECTADY COUNTY COMMUNITY COLLEGE

DELHI, NY ... Beginning January 22, SUNY Delhi will offer the first of its Hospitality Management bachelor-level courses on the Schenectady County Community College campus as part of a joint bachelor's degree in Hospitality Management.

An agreement was signed last fall that will allow SCCC to serve as a site for Delhi's Advance Purchasing and Human Resource Management courses during spring semester 2002, which will enroll 25 students.

"This is a great opportunity for students who want to pursue a bachelor's degree, but are unable to travel to Delhi," said Larry Barrett, dean of enrollment services at SUNY Delhi. "Right now we are encouraging students who are interested in a four-year degree to sign up. We still have some availability."

Delhi's Hospitality Management bachelor's degree program is the only one of its kind in New York State. The college was one of the first to offer Hospitality Management at the associate's degree level in the state as well, developing a national reputation for excellence in the field.

To enroll in the Hospitality Management courses on the SCCC campus this spring or to find out more about SUNY Delhi's hospitality management bachelor's degree at SCCC, please call 1 (800) 96 DELHI.