

SUNY DELHI OFFERS VACATION PACKAGE ON EBAY TO RAISE SCHOLARSHIP DOLLARS

DELHI, NY ... SUNY Delhi is looking to expand its scholarship fund-raising, so it is turning to eBay, the country's most popular auction website, to offer an all-inclusive Jamaican vacation to the highest bidder.

"This is a great opportunity to attract a wide audience to our college and our fund-raising efforts," said Joel Smith, executive director of the College Foundation at Delhi. "We'll reach tens of millions of registered eBay users throughout the world."

SUNY Delhi is offering an all-inclusive 8-day, 7-night vacation for two at the Sunset Beach Resort & Spa on Montego Bay, Jamaica. The package includes air-conditioned accommodations, round-trip airfare from JFK or Newark, all meals and beverages including wine by the glass, as well as all hotel taxes and gratuities. Travel plans must be made with one month's advance notice, and some blackout dates apply.

The Sunset Beach Resort & Spa features sun loungers and beach towels with the use of three private beaches. Guests at the resort may enjoy water activities such as snorkeling, kayaking, paddle boats (with instruction), and for the landlubbers there are four tennis courts (lit for night play), shuffleboard, mini-golf, giant chess and checkers, beach volleyball, a discotheque with nightly entertainment, and a fully-equipped fitness center. Families can take advantage of the supervised For Kid's Sake children's program.

All proceeds from the eBay fundraiser will benefit the SUNY Delhi Scholarship Fund. The bidding begins on eBay Friday, March 14, with final bids accepted on Monday, March 24.
