In order for us to adequately evaluate your strengths as a candidate for a scholarship, please attach a written 350-500 word personal essay. Please highlight extracurricular activities and other achievements that would distinguish you as a scholarship candidate. Explain why you chose SUNY Delhi and your major, and how the education will assist you in reaching your personal goals.

All scholarship applicants must have a high school transcript and all college transcripts on file in the Admissions office. Typically awards for the fall semester are made mid to late spring and the dollar amount usually averages $500 per semester. Once awards have been made, they will be reflected on your financial award notice in bronco web and you will be notified via regular mail.
