The End of a Successful School Year

The Residence Halls will close for all residence hall students, except graduating seniors, on Friday, May 18, at 11 p.m. All non-graduating residents must be moved out by that time. The residence halls close for graduating seniors on Saturday, May 19, at 6 p.m.

In order to properly check-out of your room you must do the following:

- Vacate your room entirely, removing all of your belongings
- You should leave your room clean, with all trash removed and in broom swept condition
- All furniture should be returned to your room.

Your room condition should be the same as stated on the room condition report (RCR) completed at check-in at the beginning of the year or semester. Missing and/or damaged items in the room will result in additional charges to your student account. Please report any damage or change in your room condition report to your Resident Assistant (RA) or Residence Hall Director (RD) before you check-out of the residence halls.

You should arrange to have your room inspected by an RA before you check-out or you may use the express check-out form. A copy of the express check-out form can be obtained from your RD.

- Return your room key to your RD or the RA on duty. Unreturned keys will result in a $68.00 charge for a lock change and key replacement.

By following the procedures above you will lessen or eliminate any additional charges to your student account for room condition and damage. If you have any questions concerning the check-out procedures, please ask your RA, RD, Complex Coordinator or any member of the Residence Life Staff.

Thank you for your cooperation.
Moving Crew Positions Open for Fall 2012

Want to give students a great first impression when they come to live on campus? Would you like to help serve the community and assist new students’ transition to being at SUNY Delhi? If these topics interest you, a Move-In Crew position is the perfect place to get started. As part of a proud tradition, students volunteer their time at the start of each year to help freshmen move their belongings into the residence halls. Through this community service, new students will receive some help bringing things in, meet SUNY Delhi students, and feel connected to our college community the moment they arrive. I encourage anyone interested in being a part of the Fall 2012 Move-In Crew to contact Residence Hall Director Owen Conklin at conkliod@delhi.edu to receive more information.

Noise Annoys
Especially during Finals

24-hour Quiet Hours are in place in all residence halls starting at 10:00 pm Wednesday, May 9th through the end of the semester.

TVs & Music must be audible only to the occupants of the room in which the equipment is being played. Voices, too! Common courtesy must prevail at all times. Loud noise and disorderly behavior are not acceptable at any time.

All residents share responsibility for enforcement of quiet hours. The right to a quiet atmosphere takes priority over all social functions & gatherings.

Thank you in advance for your cooperation.

Cleaning your room is one effective way to eliminate a cleaning charge!

Aack! I have mutant dustbunnies!

Go to the RA office and check out a broom and mop to clean out your room!

Where did it all come from? And why am I saving it?

The RA office has trash bags also to help you clean out all that “stuff!”

If you know there is damage caused by someone other than yourself, tell your RA or RD.
