SUNY DELHI
Student of the Year Process and Criteria

Definition
Two Student of the Year awards will be presented to two individuals who have achieved sufficient academic success to warrant graduation from the College; who have demonstrated a superior sense of dedication; and who have contributed significantly to the extra and co-curricular activities of the College. One award will be given for an Associate’s Degree student and one award for a Bachelor’s Degree student.

Committee
All applications will be submitted and reviewed by the Student of the Year Committee, which shall consist of student representatives and the Chair. Candidates may not serve on the committee. The advisor to the Student Senate will approve all committee members.

Conditions
All applicants must meet all four of the following conditions:

1. A full-time student who is currently enrolled in his/her second year (at least) earning a degree, or a full time student currently enrolled in his/her fourth year (at least) earning a degree.
2. All candidates for the Student of the Year Award (Associate’s and Bachelor’s level) will only be allowed to count activities and achievements that have taken place during their final four semesters at SUNY Delhi. NOTE: Bachelor’s degree students who have previously applied for the Associate’s degree Student of the Year Award may count only those activities that took place after completion of the Associate’s degree. The same applies to students earning a second Associate’s degree.
3. Must complete the appropriate application and submit it by the publicized date.
4. Must have a CUMULATIVE GRADE POINT AVERAGE of at least 2.0 at the end of the semester prior to graduation.

Important Dates

B. Evaluations: Applicants must submit one evaluation from each of the five people below. All 5 evaluation letters can be sent either electronically to Robert Schoener (Schoenrc@delhi.edu) or via campus mail to Student of the Year Committee, Student Activities, Farrell Student and Community Center. Applicants need 5 letters total. (Letters will be reviewed by the committee and awarded up to 10 points each for a maximum of 50 points.)

Note: Evaluations from instructors and staff will not be accepted after the application deadline. It is the applicant’s responsibility to ensure that all evaluations are received on time. You may check with Rob Schoener or the evaluator to verify the status of your letters.

1. Instructor Evaluation: Applicant will provide ONE instructor evaluation. The evaluator will be asked to address the applicant’s attitude, leadership, participation, in class and willingness to learn.

2. Administrative Evaluation: Applicant will provide ONE evaluation by a campus administrator. Examples of administrators include the Student Activities Director or Assistant Director, Director or Assistant Director of Counseling and Health, Director or Assistant Director of Residence Life, Director of Assistant Director of Athletics, Chief of University Police, Division Deans, or College President or Vice President. The evaluator will address the applicant’s dedication to tasks, assistance with and participation in College/hall/club activities and the applicant’s enthusiasm and willingness to give of his/her abilities.

3. Club/Organization Advisor Evaluation: Applicant will provide ONE evaluation from the advisor of a club or organization to which the applicant belongs. The evaluator will address the applicant’s dedication to tasks, assistance with and participation in College/hall/club activities and the applicant’s enthusiasm and willingness to give of his/her abilities.

4. Applicant’s Choice of Staff/Faculty Evaluation: Applicant will provide ONE evaluation from a professional staff or faculty member of their choice. This person cannot be one of the evaluators listed above. Staff evaluators will address the applicant’s dedication to tasks, assistance with and participation in College/hall/club activities and the applicant’s enthusiasm and willingness to give of his/her abilities. Faculty evaluators will be asked to address the applicant’s attitude, leadership, participation in class and willingness to learn.

5. Self-Evaluation: Applicant will provide a typed letter of self evaluation addressed to the committee as to why you should be selected as Student of the Year. Each candidate should address their qualifications and accomplishments with a one to two page typed essay.

Instructions for Sections C, D and E: Please read carefully the following sections C, D, and E and provide the required information as honestly and concisely as possible. The applicant must provide a co-curricular transcript which can be obtained from the Office of Records and Registration in 124 Bush Hall. Any information requested from sections C, D, and E that is not included in the co-curricular transcript needs to be submitted on a separate sheet for each section and must include the names and telephone numbers of individuals and/or offices that can confirm your involvement. Applicants are asked not to repeat any recognition/award etc. that was mentioned in any prior category.

The Student of the Year committee can only respond and provide credit for activities, memberships, participation, etc. that can be verified.
C. Extra Curricular Activities
All activities must be verified and/or verifiable by the Student of the Year Committee. Points will be awarded based on the volume and duration of the student activity and participation.

1. Campus Clubs: Only one score permitted per semester per club.
   - President: 10
   - Vice President: 8
   - Pledge Master/Mistress for recognized organizations: 7
   - Secretary/Treasurer: 6
   - Rush Chair: 5
   - Risk Management Officer (Greek Council): 4
   - Senator/Greek Council Rep: 4
   - Historian: 3
   - Member: 2

   Example of Score: Fall 1998: Member FSEA = 2pts; Spring 1999: Senator = 4 pts; Fall 1999: VP = 8pts; Spring 2000: President = 10pts. Total point score for this section is 24.

3. College Committees: 3 points per year for committees including but not limited to the following:
   - CADI Board
   - SUNY Day
   - Traffic Appeals Board
   - Safety Committee
   - Diversity Task Force
   - Student Conduct Committee

Note: You may not count committee membership if membership on the committee is a required component of a position listed in C.1 or D.1 above. Thus Resident Assistants may not count a residence hall committee unless membership on that committee was in addition to the required number of committees the RA was required to be on for that semester (subject to verification by your RD). Similarly, committees the Student Senate Vice President is required to serve on may not be counted.

Note: Activities or positions not listed in sections C and D above may receive credit at the discretion of the Student of the Year committee.

E. Contributions to Campus and Community: (No maximum point score)
This category recognizes the applicant’s sense of volunteerism to benefit the College, its students, faculty and staff and the community, state, nation in which the College exists. Activities for which NO payment was received are the only type allowable.

Note: All contributions to campus community must be submitted via the co-curricular transcript. Only those activities listed on the co-curricular transcript will be counted toward the score for section E.

The items listed below are types of activities or guidelines to be considered in this category. The listing is not exhaustive and applicants should feel free to add to it as they see fit and justifiable. Applicants will receive 1 point for each hour of participation listed on the co-curricular transcript. Examples of eligible activities include the following:

- Big Brother/Sister/Buddy
- Food/Blood Drives
- Hospice Volunteer
- Community Help/Disaster Relief/Crisis Assistance
- Programs for Children (Day Care) and/or Aged (Infirmary)
- Volunteer to Boy/Girl Scouts
- Volunteer to Brownies/Cub Scouts
- College/Community Projects (painting, escort, neighborhood watch, Habitat for Humanity)

Note: You may not count community service activities that are a required component of a course or a position listed in C or D above. Thus, Resident Assistants may not count residence hall programs as community service unless they were in addition to the required number of programs for a semester (subject to verification by your RD). Likewise, activities that are part of the responsibility of an officer in a club, organization or student government body may not be included as a community service activity.

F. Awards, Honors and Competitive Scholarships: (No maximum point score)
All awards, honors and scholarships must be verified and/or verifiable by the Student of the Year Committee. Applicants will receive 3 points per award.

Please not that any inaccurate, incorrect or misleading information may result in disqualification.

Student of the Year awards will be announced at the Student Senate Banquet. All applicants will be invited to attend.
