

Betsy Weidenbach

Professor Betsy Weidenbach's teaching centers around the Culinary Arts and Restaurant and Food Service Management disciplines. Specifically she teaches Nutrition, Basic Food Preparation and Standards Lab and Food Production, Planning and Purchasing. Her professional background includes working as an Instructor of Food Services at R.W. Harrold BOCES in Sidney Center, New York, the Assistant Manager of Dining Services at both SUNY Delhi and SUNY Geneseo and as the Manager of food services for the Adirondack Swim & Trip Summer Camp in Rainbow Lake, New York. Professor Weidenbach received her Bachelors degree in Foods and Nutrition from SUNY Plattsburgh and her Masters in Vocational Education from SUNY Oswego. On campus she is the co-advisor for the Association of Travel Executives student trade organization.