

Michael Barnes

Professor Michael Barnes' teaching centers around the Restaurant and Club Management disciplines. Specifically he teaches such classes as Applied Food Service Sanitation, Hospitality Marketing, Restaurant Management and Operations, Purchasing for the Hospitality Industry and Beverage and Beverage Control. His professional background includes numerous management positions with several top hospitality organizations. He has held the position of General Manger for the Riverside Golf Course in Cambridge Springs, Pennsylvania, the Perry's Landing Yacht Club, Red Lobster in Daytona Beach, Florida and Bennigan's Tavern in Jacksonville, Florida. He has also worked as the Assistant Manager for the Chart House Restaurant in Dobbs Ferry, New York and for Victoria Station Restaurant in White Plains, New York. Professor Barnes received his Masters from Florida International University in Miami. On campus, Mr. Barnes serves as the Co-Advisor for the Club Managers Association of American Student Trade Organization.