

Lee Heron

Professor Heron's teaching centers around the Hotel and Resort Management discipline. Specifically, she teaches courses such as Hospitality Law, Hotel Front Office Management, Lodging Accommodations Management, Hospitality Management, and Human Resources. Professor Heron has held numerous management positions with Marriott International with fifteen years experience as a General Manager with Marriott International. She received her B.S. degree in Business Administration from Bowling Green State University and her M.B.A. from Tiffin University. Currently, Professor Heron is pursuing her Doctorate of Philosophy in Business Administration. Professor Heron is a co-advisor for the Hotel Management Society Student Trade Organization.