

SUNY Delhi College Senate

Bylaws

The Bylaws have been developed to establish the basis and provide the means by which the Academic and Non-Academic Staff of the State University of New York College of Technology at Delhi (SUNY Delhi) can govern itself as a body within the College, involve itself in the governance of the College, and carry out its responsibility to participate in the development of the educational program of the College and to conduct this program.

These bylaws are in accordance with the requirements and policies of the Board of Trustees of the State University of New York.

These bylaws are governed by the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order, except as otherwise provided by these bylaws.

TITLE A. ESTABLISHMENT AND PURPOSES

§ 1. Name. The name of this organization shall be the SUNY Delhi College Senate.

§ 2. Purposes. The SUNY Delhi College Senate will be the official agency through which the SUNY Delhi academic and non-academic staff engage in shared governance of the College. The Senate shall be concerned with effective educational policies and other professional matters within the College. The SUNY Delhi College Senate will make recommendations to College leadership, which includes the President and Provost of SUNY Delhi, concerning effective policies and other matters within the College.

TITLE B. MEMBERSHIP

§ 1. Composition.

A. Composition of the SUNY Delhi College Senate will consist of one non-voting President and thirty-three (33) Senators with voting privileges:

- One (1) academic staff representative from each of the six (6) academic program areas, as defined below, each representative elected by the full-time academic staff of their own area:
 - Residential Construction, Construction Technology, Construction Management, Mechatronics, Architecture (South);
 - Automotive, Electrical, HVAC, Welding, Plumbing & Heating (North);
 - Liberal Arts and Sciences;
 - Nursing;
 - Professional Studies (Business, Hospitality, Applied Sciences, Recreation);
 - Veterinary Science.
- One (1) Librarian, elected by the Library staff

- Twelve (12) academic staff representatives, elected at-large, by the full-time academic staff
- One (1) non-academic staff representative from each of the six (6) Vice President and/or Officer areas that directly report to the President, each representative elected by the full-time non-academic staff of their area.
- Seven (7) non-academic staff representatives, elected at-large, by the full-time non-academic staff
- One (1) academic or non-academic graduate program representative, elected at-large, by the full-time academic and non-academic staff

All Senators must be full time employees of SUNY Delhi.

B. One (1) Senator will be elected as the University Faculty Senate (UFS) representative. This position is elected by the Senate. This Senator must be a member in good standing.

One (1) Senator will be elected as the alternate UFS representative. This position is elected by the Senate. This Senator must be a member in good standing. The duties and responsibilities of the alternate UFS representative shall follow the requirements for alternate Senators as defined in Section 5C of these Bylaws.

The University Faculty Senate representative represents the college on the SUNY University Faculty Senate. The UFS representative's responsibilities include attending three yearly plenary meetings and bringing concerns to the SUNY University Faculty Senate. The UFS representative also works with the fellow senators from the Technology Sector to discuss concerns and compare experiences. The UFS representative is also responsible for voting on SUNY University Faculty Senate resolutions and offices, and is expected to report back to the SUNY Delhi College Senate and the campus community.

C. The College President, College Provost, and Student Senate President serve as ex-officio, non-voting members.

D. Senate membership will terminate upon any change to an ineligible status or separation of employment with the College.

E. Academic staff is the staff comprised of those persons having academic rank or qualified academic rank. Academic rank includes, but is not limited to, the titles of Professor, Associate Professor, Assistant Professor, Instructor, Librarian, Associate Librarian, Senior Assistant Librarian, and Assistant Librarian. Qualified academic rank includes the title of Lecturer and titles of academic rank preceded by Visiting.

F. Non-academic staff is comprised of all classified and unclassified SUNY Delhi employees who do not hold academic or qualified academic rank.

G. Academic and non-academic staff holding Management/Confidential titles are not eligible to serve as voting members of Senate.

§ 2. Duties and Responsibilities of Senators -

A. Definitions

- Area Elected Representatives – Represent the academic staff of their academic program area.
- At-Large Representatives – Academic at-large representatives represent the academic staff of the campus. Non-academic representatives represent the non-academic staff of the campus.

B. Responsibilities

- To attend all Senate meetings.
- To participate in deliberations.
- To vote on all motions that are brought before the Senate.
- To be fully informed on all issues before the Senate.
- To communicate and discuss issues before the Senate with constituents and to bring the perspective of constituents on these issues to the Senate.
- To bring matters of constituent concerns to the Senate.
- To serve on Senate subcommittees.
- Participate in annual shared governance training.
- Participate in annual Robert's Rules of Order training.

§ 3. Election

A. Area Elected Seats

The Senate Operations Committee will oversee the nomination and election of the area seat(s) when an elected area term has expired. The nomination period will last for the first week of May, immediately followed by a one (1) week voting period. These elections shall be conducted by secret ballot, through electronic means, and by majority of those voting. The chair of the Senate Operations Committee will share the results.

When an area-elected seat has been vacated during the Senate meeting schedule, the Senate Operations Committee will begin the nomination period within three (3) business days of notification of the seat vacancy. The nomination period will last for one (1) week, immediately followed by a one (1) week voting period. These elections shall be conducted by secret ballot, through electronic means, and by majority of those voting. The chair of the Senate Operations Committee will share the results. The seat will be filled for the remainder of the term.

When an area-elected seat from an academic program area has been vacated outside the Senate meeting schedule, the Senate Operations Committee will begin the nomination period by the end of the first week of faculty obligation. The nomination period will last for one (1) calendar week, immediately followed by a one (1) week voting period. These elections shall be conducted by secret ballot, through electronic means, and by majority of those voting. The Senate Operations Committee will share the results. The seat will be filled for the remainder of the term.

If an administrative restructuring of the College results in a change to the areas that require representation, as defined in Title B, Section §1 of these Bylaws, the necessary changes will be made to the Bylaws according to the process in Title F of these Bylaws. Vacancies resulting from restructuring will be filled upon expiration of the Senator's current term. The nomination period will last for the first calendar week of May, immediately followed by a one (1) week voting period. These elections shall be conducted by secret ballot, through the current learning management system or other electronic means, and by majority of those voting. The chair of the Senate Operations Committee will share the results.

B. At-Large Elected Seats

The Senate Operations Committee will oversee the nomination and election of the at-large seats and the graduate representative seat when an elected at-large term has expired. The nomination period will last for the first week of May, immediately followed by a one (1) week voting period. These elections shall be conducted by secret ballot, through electronic means, and by majority of those voting. The chair of the Senate Operations Committee will share the results.

Should an at-large seat be vacated during the Senate session, the seat will be filled twice per academic year, in November and May, at which time the seat will be filled for the remainder of the term. The nomination period will last for the first calendar week of November and May, immediately followed by a one (1) week voting period. These elections shall be conducted by secret ballot, through electronic means, and by majority of those voting. The chair of the Senate Operations Committee will share the results.

C. The Senate Operations Committee will oversee the representative membership by maintaining and publishing a current list of members.

§ 4. Terms.

A. Each elected Senator will serve a term of two (2) years concurrent with the Senate session.

B. The Senator elected as the UFS representative will serve a term of three (3) years.

C. The Senator elected as the alternate UFS representative will serve a term of three (3) years.

§ 5. Attendance, Proxy, Alternate

A. Attendance: Senators are expected to attend all scheduled Senate meetings.

B. Proxy: Senators who are unable to attend a scheduled Senate meeting will be responsible for arranging a proxy to fill in for that meeting. A proxy is defined as a current, voting member of Senate in good standing, or a member of the Senator's constituency. The proxy will be responsible for notifying the Secretary of their presence and who they are representing. A Senator may be represented by a proxy no more than three (3) Senate meetings in one (1) academic semester. Senators may proxy for no more than two (2) Senators at one time. It is the responsibility of the absent Senator to communicate information from the missed meeting to their constituents.

C. Alternate: Alternates will be allowed to serve in the long-term absence of an elected Senator, and shall serve for the same term as the representatives for whom they are alternates. Such alternate representatives shall exercise all the powers and duties of the Senator for whom they are alternates. Alternate Senators will have full floor privileges when substituting for a duly elected Senator. Alternate Senators will be elected according to the election process stated in these bylaws as defined in Section B3. Any Senator who will be absent for four (4) or more consecutive meetings in one academic semester must be represented by an alternate for the duration of their absence.

§ 6. Reelection. Senators may be reelected for an indefinite number of terms.

§ 7. Vacancies.

A. Vacant Representative Seats. A Senator's seat will be deemed vacant by the Presider if:

- A Senator, or alternate Senator, fails to be present at roll call for three (3) or more Senate meetings in one (1) academic year without a proxy.
- A Senator resigns from the Senate or leaves employment at the College.
- A Senator in good standing is on sabbatical, or otherwise unable to fulfill Senate duties for a period exceeding one (1) semester.

If a Senator's seat is deemed vacant, the affected constituency will elect another Senator to fulfill the Senator's unexpired term according to the election procedures specified in Title B, Section 3 of these bylaws.

B. Vacant Executive Seats. The seat of a Senate officer will be deemed vacant for any of the reasons listed previously for Senators.

If the following seats become vacant:

- Presider: The Associate Presider will assume the Presidership for the unexpired term of the Presider.
- Associate Presider: A new Associate Presider will be elected by the Senate if the unexpired term exceeds one (1) semester, in the same manner as the original election, as defined in Title D of these Bylaws, at the next Senate meeting following the occurrence of the vacancy. If the unexpired term is one (1) semester or less, then the Executive Committee shall elect one of its members to serve as acting Associate Presider until the next election.

- Secretary: A new Secretary will be elected by the Senate if the unexpired term exceeds one (1) semester, in the same manner as the original election, as defined in Title D of these Bylaws, at the next Senate meeting following the occurrence of the vacancy. If the unexpired term is one (1) semester or less, then the Executive Committee shall elect one of its members to serve as acting Secretary until the next election.

TITLE C. OFFICERS

§ 1. Presider of the Senate. The election of the Presider will be conducted by the Operations Committee at the first April meeting of the outgoing College Senate. The Presider shall serve for a term of two (2) years. The Presider of the Senate may be reelected for two (2) subsequent terms, only one (1) of which may be consecutive, but may not thereafter be eligible for any additional terms. The Presider will have no voting rights while serving as Presider.

The Presider's term(s) will be followed by a 1-year term as Past Presider, serving in an advisory role to the current Presider, and will sit on the Executive Committee. The Past Presider will have no voting rights while serving as Past Presider. Upon conclusion of the advisory term, if the Past Presider wishes to continue serving on the Senate, the Past Presider shall run for an open position via the election process contained in these bylaws.

Upon taking office as Presider of the Senate, the elected member shall vacate the position as the representative of his or her area in the Senate. The vacated seat shall be filled with a representative from the elected Presider's area, via the election process contained in these Bylaws.

In the event that the Senate is unable to elect a Presider at the first meeting in April of the affected year, nominations will continue to be accepted at each subsequent Senate meeting through the final meeting of May, if necessary. Once a nomination is received, an election will be held during the next Senate meeting. If no Presider is elected by the final meeting of May, the College President shall appoint a Presider from the current Senate membership by June 1. The appointee must have served at least one (1) year on the College Senate prior to the appointment.

Compensation shall be provided to the Presider through either a 3-credit course release or financial distribution equivalent to a 3-credit course at the respective extra service rate.

Duties and Requirements of Presider:

- A. The Presider will preside at all meetings of the College Senate.
- B. The Presider will ensure that all responsibilities and actions of the Senate are promptly and properly carried out.
- C. The Presider will chair the Senate Executive Committee.

D. The Presider will meet regularly with the College President and the College Provost to discuss issues of concern to the Senate.

E. The Presider will carry out other duties as assigned by the Senate or the Senate Executive Committee.

F. The Presider will receive and communicate all items of business that are conducted by and/or presented to the Senate to the appropriate area on campus.

G. The Presider position may be filled by either an academic or non-academic Senator.

§ 2. Associate Presider. The election of the Associate Presider will be conducted by the Operations Committee at the last meeting of April of the outgoing College Senate, or during the meeting following the election of the Presider. The Associate Presider shall serve for a term of two (2) years, provided that they remain a Senator in good standing. The Associate Presider position may be filled by either an academic or non-academic Senator, whichever was not elected to the Presider role. The Associate Presider shall serve as Presider of the Senate during that officer's absence or inability to act. Compensation shall be provided to the Associate Presider through either a 3-credit course release or financial distribution equivalent to a 3-credit course at the respective extra service rate.

In the event that the Senate is unable to elect an Associate Presider during the meeting following the election of the Presider, nominations for Associate Presider may be accepted from both academic and non-academic Senate members during the next Senate meeting.

In the event that the Senate is unable to elect an Associate Presider within three Senate meetings of the scheduled election for the Associate Presider, the Presider shall appoint an interim Associate Presider from the current Senate membership until a nominee comes forward. The appointee must have served at least one (1) year on the College Senate prior to the appointment.

Duties and responsibilities of Associate Presider:

A. The Associate Presider will perform the duties and responsibilities of the Presider in the absence of the Presider.

B. The Associate Presider will serve as the Senate Parliamentarian.

C. The Associate Presider will chair the Operations Committee.

§ 3. Secretary. The election of the Secretary will be conducted by the Operations Committee at the last meeting of April of the outgoing College Senate, or during the meeting following the election of the Presider. The Secretary shall serve for a term of two (2) years, provided that they remain a Senator in good standing. The Secretary shall take and keep minutes of the Senate, and shall exercise such other powers and duties as the Senate shall provide in these Bylaws.

In the event that the Senate is unable to elect a Secretary within three (3) Senate meetings of the scheduled election for the Secretary, the Presider shall appoint an interim Secretary from the current Senate membership until a nominee comes forward.

Duties and responsibilities of Secretary:

- A. The Secretary will record and keep the minutes of the Senate and Executive Committee.
- B. The Secretary will assemble and distribute the Senate minutes and meeting agendas to the College.
- C. The Secretary will maintain all College Senate documents in the current electronic repository.
- D. The Secretary will maintain the College Senate website.

TITLE D. ELECTION OF OFFICERS

- A. The election of Senate Officers will be conducted by the Operations Committee at the first and last meetings of April of the outgoing College Senate as defined in Section B3 of these Bylaws.
- B. Officers will be directly elected by the voting membership of the Senate.
- C. The chair of the Operations Committee will call for nominations for officer positions a month prior to the scheduled officer elections. Any nominations that are not self-nominations require the nominee's written permission to be nominated. All nominations for officer positions will be published prior to the election.
- D. Nominations will be accepted from the floor. A nominee need not be present but must have given written permission to be nominated.
- E. Prior to the election of Presider, nominees for Presider must present to the Senate, either orally or in writing, a brief summary of their vision for the Senate and the key issues that they wish to address as Presider.
- F. The nomination and election of officers will proceed in the following sequence:
 - 1. Presider
 - 2. Associate Presider
 - 3. Secretary
- G. To be elected, an officer must receive a simple majority of votes cast.

Tie Breaker for the Election of Officers (adapted from recently adopted UFS language): If no candidate for an officer position receives a majority of the votes cast, then the candidate who received the lowest number of votes shall be removed from the ballot, and the election repeated until a candidate receives a majority of the votes cast. In the case of a tie for the lowest number of votes in any round, the election will be repeated with no candidates removed from the ballot. If two rounds of voting after the first tie does not break the tie, the two tied candidates with the lowest number of votes will be identified and the election will be repeated (with all remaining candidates including those tied) until a candidate receives a majority of the votes cast. The vote count shall be reported only for the final ballot.

TITLE E. ORGANIZATION AND COMMITTEES

§ 1. Meetings. The College Senate will meet bi-monthly during the academic calendar year, at such times and places as shall be determined by the Executive Committee. If regularly scheduled meetings fall on academic breaks and holidays, that meeting will be postponed until the next regularly scheduled meeting. The SUNY Delhi College Senate Executive Committee and/or the SUNY Delhi College Senate Presider may call a non-scheduled meeting, or cancel a regularly scheduled meeting if deemed necessary. The SUNY Delhi College Senate shall meet no less than once per month during the academic calendar year, and at other times as determined by the College Senate Executive Committee. The meeting agenda and all related meeting materials must be made available to the College Senators at least five (5) business days prior to the scheduled meeting.

§ 2. Committees of the Senate.

The Senate may establish such committees as it deems advisable and shall prescribe the functions of such committees. All committees must report monthly to Senate.

§ 3. General Duties and Responsibilities of Committee Chairs. Committee chairs are responsible for leading their committees, conducting committee meetings, ensuring that their committees are fully staffed and functioning effectively, and for reporting interim and final findings to the Senate.

§ 4. Vacant Committee Seats

A. A committee member or committee chair seat will be deemed vacant for any of the reasons previously listed for Senators.

B. If a committee chair seat is deemed vacant, a new chair will be elected by the means designated for that committee to serve the unexpired term.

C. If a committee member seat is declared vacant and the unexpired term exceeds one (1) semester, or if the committee cannot otherwise function, a new committee member will be seated according to the procedure for that committee.

§ 5. Internal Committees of the Senate

- A. Internal Committees manage the internal functions of the College Senate.
