Enrollment Data Summary

This table includes students entering into the Construction Technology AAS program as well as the Construction Management: Design & Build BT program for the indicated fall term.

"Freshmen" is defined as students entering with 0-29 credits completed, and "Sophomors" are defined as any student with 30-59 credits completed as of the official census date. The "Total" combines only the Freshmen and Sophomore counts.

The "Graduates" counts only include students from the AAS program, and are based on the academic year for the term; in other words, the number of graduates under the "Fall 2016" term would include graduates from Fall 2016 - Summer 2017.
