

Reporting Obligations of Confidential, Semi-Confidential, and Private Resources On- and Off-Campus

Confidential	Semi-Confidential	Private
Cannot re-disclose any information provided by a reporting individual.	Do not disclose any personally identifiable information to police or campus officials, but provide aggregate data to the Title IX Coordinator as required by law.	Will limit disclosure as much as possible while complying with the law and SUNY Delhi policy, which requires notifying the Title IX Coordinator or designee of all known details.
Medical providers; licensed mental health counselors; clergy; off-campus counselors and advocates. The above must be acting in the capacity of these roles when learning of a report in order to maintain confidentiality.	Counselors without licenses; Employees at a campus advocacy center, including a women's center or crime victim assistance center; Administrative staff at counseling, health, and advocacy centers.	All College employees besides confidential resources and non-professional counselors and advocates; including Deans, Resident Advisors, Residence Directors, Academic Advisors, Faculty and more.
