Accommodations for students with disabilities:

It is the College's policy to provide, on an individual basis, reasonable accommodations to students with disabilities which may affect their ability to fully participate in program or course activities or to meet course requirements. To receive academic accommodations, students must identify a qualifying disability, provide appropriate documentation of the disability (prepared by a qualified professional), and work with the Coordinator and classroom faculty to develop an appropriate and reasonable plan for accommodations. All information provided concerning a disability is confidential and is released only with the student's consent. If you need accommodations for your summer classes please submit all your information to the Coordinator of Access and Equity Services, at the time of registration for your classes. Visit the Access & Equity Services webpage for more information.

Linda Weinberg, Coordinator of Access and Equity Services, Phone: 607-746-4593, Email: weinbell@delhi.edu
Notice of requested accommodation(s) must be provided to faculty members in a reasonable period of time in advance of need each semester.
